Special Note

I would like to take a minute and thank all my Senior friends for the cards, calls, & flowers that were sent to my wife and I on the death of her father, Andrew Kayati. I cannot begin to tell you what a comfort it was to the family to be honored in such a way! We will miss him, but knowing our friends share our sorrow is such a blessing. It was an honor, not a burden, to have been able to take care of him the last couple of years as his health failed him. Again, thank you for your support; May God bless each and every one of you!
